

Join us for a FREE screening of
THE HOUSE I LIVE IN

Followed by Panel Discussion + Reception

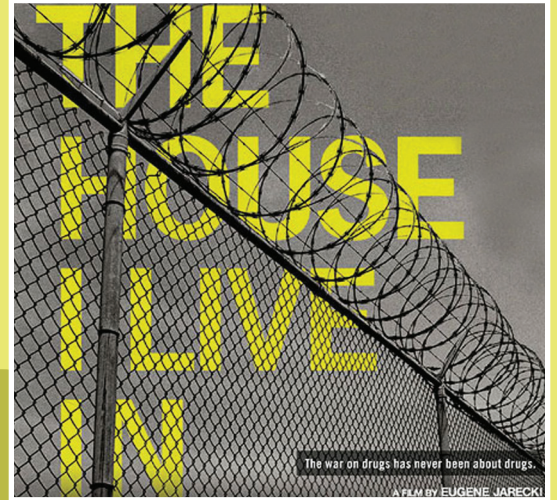

Monday, April 22, 5pm

Proshansky Auditorium, Graduate Center,
365 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY

The award-winning documentary, THE HOUSE I LIVE IN (2012), is about America's longest war. For over forty years, the War on Drugs has made America the world's largest jailer, ruined lives, and damaged communities. This film explains how we got here.

(www.thehouseilivein.org).

Screening is from 5pm-6pm.

Panel Discussion: "RESISTING" (6pm-7pm)

with:

Liliana Segura (The Nation)

Gabriel Sayegh (Drug Policy Alliance)

Glenn E. Martin (Fortune Society)

Alondra Nelson (Associate Professor, Columbia University, author Body and Soul)

FREE
Food & Wine Reception
(7-8pm)

Space is limited.

RSVP at

<http://bit.ly/resist13screening>

The City University of New York
CUNY GRADUATE SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM

THE GRADUATE CENTER
CITY UNIVERSITY
OF NEW YORK